Music for Clarinet and Piano

The performers in this concert will be Charles Dallaire and Laurretta Altman. Charles Dallaire received a Ph. D. in Music Performance from Concordia University in 1990. Laurretta Altman is a graduate of Juilliard School of Music. Both performers are frequent recitalists, and have been heard many times on Radio Canada.

The program consists of Sonata No. 2 for clarinet and piano by Brahms, pieces by Paganini, de Falla and Schumann, and a new composition, written specifically for this concert by Wolfgang Bottenberg. This work, called "Toccata", is a solo piece for the clarinetist who is accompanied by prepared sound-tapes creating a multi-dimensional and polyphonic effect.
